* I have 11 years software development experience with The Walt Disney company in high-availability, highly scaled middleware services. This includes compliance to best security practices, PCI, PEN Testing, Change Control / CAB, and Disaster Recovery. * I am a Linux expert, and former engineer with Red Hat. * My skills include JBoss, Java, XML, REST, Security APIs, encryption, SSL, LAMP, MySQL, PHP. * I'm currently a DevOps Engineer contractor at Optum in Raleigh working in/with Agile/Scrum, Jenkins, OpenShift, and XL Deploy. I am already proficient in Optum's and UHC's processes (Service now, secure requests, appstore), and have an existing badge, identification (kbarret9), and email address (keith.barrett@optum.com). * I have security experience with cross-scripting, injection, and physical access security. Once held a "sensitive" clearance with the USPS. * I have an ITIL Expert Certification. My existing contracting is ending on 4/28 and I'd like to stay as an employee. I think Optum is a great place to work and I'd hate to leave.
